

Lineage and Honors Fifth Connecticut Regiment, Continental Line

---

1 May 1775	Regiment formed, commanded by Colonel David Waterbury
14 June 1775	Regiment adopted into Continental Army
July-November 1775	Siege of Fort St. John, Canada
13 November 1775	Capture of Montreal, Canada
13 December 1775	Regiment disbanded at Fort Ticonderoga
1 January 1777	Regiment reestablished, commanded by Colonel Philip Burr Bradley.
April 1777	Connecticut Campaign, Battle of Ridgefield (27)
April-September 1777	Hudson Highlands Defense
October 1777	Defense of Philadelphia Campaign, Battle of Germantown (04)
Winter 1777-1778	Valley Forge
26 June 1778	Philadelphia-Monmouth Campaign, Battle of Monmouth (26)
Winter 1778-1779	Redding Ridge, Connecticut
15 July 1779	Battle of Stony Point (Light Infantry Company)
Winter 1779-1780	Morristown
June 1780-1782	Hudson Highlands Defense
1 January 1781	Fifth Regiment reorganized from First and Eighth Regiments, commanded by Colonel Isaac Sherman
January 1781	New York Campaign, Morrisania
6 July 1781	Battle of Green Springs, Virginia (Light Infantry Company)
September-October 1781	Siege of Yorktown (Two Light Infantry Companies)
1 January 1783	Fifth Connecticut Regiment disbanded at West Point
October 1974	Fifth Connecticut Regiment recreated by Dennis Ambruso, Eric Chandler, Otto DePeime, Jim Freebairn, Rick Gillespie, Fred Glissman, John Passiglia, Tom Pearson, and James Purcell, Jr.
1975-1983	Bicentennial Campaign
1984 -	The Duration

---